SIR,

I am directed to state that Sri S. Kanakaratnaraj, B.A.,B.L., Principal District and Sessions Judge, Bangalore Division, Bangalore, reported that he had utilised 7 days casual leave with effect from 19-9-1950 to 26-9-1950 with permission to utilise Sunday the 24th September 1950 on account of his daughter's marriage. As the required number of days of casual leave was not at the credit of the officer he was requested to apply for privilege leave or furlough as the case may be. Consequently he has applied for furlough on average salary from 19-9-1950 to 30-9-1950 with permission to suffix Sunday the 1st October 1950 and the General Holiday on the 2nd October 1950. I am to request that the Government may be pleased to sanction the leave applied for.

Yours faithfully,

Registrar.

Extract taken from letter No.R.O.C. No.352/50-51 dated 1/8/1950 from the Registrar, High Court of Mysore, Bangalore, to the Secretary to the Government of Mysore, Law Department, Bangalore.

With reference to your memorandum No.6332/C.B. dated 20/7/1950, returning the High Court letter of even number dated 10/7/1950 requesting grant of ~~XXX~~ 13 days of whatever kind of leave admissible to Sri N.R. Jaya Rao, Additional District and Sessions Judge of Mysore, with effect from 12/7/1950 on the ground that the leave to be sanctioned is within the competency of the High Court, I am directed to invite kind reference to Article 235 of the Constitution of India which specifically lays down that the High Court is competent to sanction leave to all judicial officers except the District Judges. It follows therefore that whatever the provisions of the Mysore Service Regulations might be, under the overriding provisions of Article 235 the competent authority to sanction privilege leave or furlough leave to Distirct Judges is the Government.
